Dear :

This responds to a letter dated November 4, 2010, submitted on behalf of  $\underline{X}$  by  $\underline{X}$ 's authorized representative, requesting inadvertent termination relief pursuant to § 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that  $\underline{X}$  was incorporated in  $\underline{Year}$  under the laws of  $\underline{State}$ .  $\underline{X}$  filed a timely election under § 1362(a) to be treated as an S corporation effective beginning on  $\underline{D1}$ .

On  $\underline{D2}$ , shares of  $\underline{X}$  stock were transferred to  $\underline{Trust}$ .  $\underline{X}$  represents that  $\underline{Trust}$  was eligible to be an electing small business trust (ESBT) within the meaning of § 1361(e) effective $\underline{D2}$ . However, no election to be to an ESBT was filed on behalf of  $\underline{Trust}$ . Therefore, the  $\underline{Trust}$  was not a permissible shareholder, and  $\underline{X}$ 's S corporation election was terminated effective  $\underline{D2}$ .

 $\underline{X}$  represents that the circumstances resulting in the termination of  $\underline{X}$ 's S corporation election were inadvertent and were not motivated by tax avoidance or retroactive tax planning. Additionally,  $\underline{X}$  represents that  $\underline{X}$  and its shareholders have filed their federal income tax returns consistent with having a valid S corporation election in effect for  $\underline{X}$ .  $\underline{X}$  and its shareholders have agreed to make such adjustments (consistent with the treatment of  $\underline{X}$  as an S corporation) as may be required by the Secretary.

Section 1362(f) provides that if (1) an election under § 1362(a) by any corporation (A) was not effective for the taxable year for which made (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(2)) by reason of a failure to meet the requirements of § 1361(b) or to obtain shareholder consents, or (B) was terminated under paragraph (2) or (3) of § 1362(d); (2) the Secretary determines that the circumstances resulting in such ineffectiveness or termination were inadvertent, (3) no later than a reasonable period of time after discovery of the event resulting in the ineffectiveness, steps were taken (A) so that the corporation is a small business corporation, or (B) to acquire the required shareholder consents, and (4) the corporation, and each person who was a shareholder of the corporation at any time during the period specified pursuant to § 1362(f), agrees to make such adjustments (consistent with the treatment of the corporation as an S corporation) as may be required by the Secretary with respect to such period, then, notwithstanding the circumstances resulting in such ineffectiveness, the corporation shall be treated as an S corporation during the period specified by the Secretary.

Based on the information submitted and the representations made, we conclude that  $\underline{X}$ 's S corporation election was inadvertently terminated on  $\underline{D2}$  because  $\underline{X}$  had an ineligible shareholder. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of § 1362(f),  $\underline{X}$  will be treated as an S corporation from  $\underline{D1}$  and thereafter, provided that the trustee of  $\underline{Trust}$  files an ESBT election effective  $\underline{D3}$ , pursuant to the procedures set forth in § 1.1361-1(m)(2), with the appropriate service center within 120 days of the date of this letter, and provided that  $\underline{X}$ 's election to be an S corporation was not otherwise ineffective and was not terminated under § 1362(d). A copy of this letter should be attached to the ESBT election.

Except for the specific ruling above, no opinion is expressed or implied concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts of this case under any other provision of the Code. Specifically, no opinion is expressed or implied regarding  $\underline{X}$ 's eligibility to be an S corporation or  $\underline{Trust}$ 's eligibility to be an ESBT.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being forwarded to  $\underline{X}$ 's authorized representatives.

Sincerely,

Bradford R. Poston Senior Counsel, Branch 2 Associate Chief Counsel (Passthroughs & Special Industries)
